Vinod Kothari & Company has always been a source of learning, encouragement and personal growth for us. For the past one year "touches.." has been sharing those pearls of knowledge and information with you. Today as we look back, we have a gleaming smile, recalling the events and the memories embedded in the past publications of "touches.."

It was just a year back that touches came to life as a medium of sharing a part of our lives with you and today we wish to continue doing the same in our forth coming editions. With great fervor we celebrate the first anniversary of touches....

Article on Disclosure of fiduciary information under section 8(1)(e) of the RTI Act: This is the true scope of exclusion clause
 -By Vinod Kothari & Aditi Jhunjunwala published in Moneylife

“No statutory authority is above the Republic of India. In our democratic setup, the people of India are supreme.” Right to Information Act reconfirms the same, but Section 8 of the RTI Act enlists some special instances where the authorities are exempted from disclosing information sought for. The Article by Vinod Kothari and Aditi Jhunjunwala focuses on the same. The article has been published in moneylife, and can be viewed in the link below:

Our Corner

Life is worth living

Life is worth living wherever you are Deep down in a dungeon or high on a star
Life is worth living, it all has a plan
When God knows you are giving the least that you can.

The saints and the sinners
The great and the small.

We are all God's children and he loves us all

So, Pray when you are happy pray when you are blue

Because life is worth living
When God is with you
