TOUCHES OF THE PAST.....

Congratulations to Anindya Sen – on the way to the judiciary

One of our former colleague, Mr. Anindya Sen, recently passed the examination of West Bengal Judicial Services and is on his way to be appointed as a Civil Judge (Jr. Div).

Congratulations, Anindya, and we are proud to have had association with you. On this occasion, we had a brief chat with him. There is lot of justice waiting to be delivered in the country: so go ahead and do justice!

- First of all I would like to congratulate you for your achievement.

Anindya - Oh! Thanks a lot

- Did you always wanted to become a Judge?

Anindya – I always wanted to serve the public at large. But my initial plans were to work in corporate sector. Once I went to court and was mesmerized after seeing the all the procedure of law and felt this is the place where I should be.

It is really a dream come true for me.

- Where would you be posted?

Anindya – I may be posted anywhere in West Bengal, We will come to know the area of our jurisdiction in sometime during March.

- What do you think of your association with Vinod Kothari & Company?

Anindya- It was great experience for me. To tell you the truth I never wanted to join a PCS. But when I met Vinod Sir I was overwhelmed by his personality. Manoj Sir's guidance also helped me a lot. The exposure I got here is incomparable.

➤ What was your experience as a teacher in our 'Academy'?

Anindya – I always liked to teach and 'Academy' gave me good opportunity. It was a very good experience for me.

➤ What are your reminiscences?

Anindya – There are loads...of them. I remember the lunch time..(laughing)..Neha always used to ask me did I take my lunch or not. After my mother, she was the first person to ask me in such a caring manner. And when Nidhi came, she always used to ask me questions and I had to read fat books in order to answer her questions. Another incidence I remember, once I went for audit in ITC, when I returned, Sir started asking questions and I explained everything and after that sir seemed convinced, which is rare – almost like an achievement.

➤ Any Suggestions?

Anindya – Oh no! I can't think of any suggestion, It is already very good.

Congratulations Neha Gupta

Neha Gupta very recently completed her training with our firm. We all remember Neha as a brilliant person. Here is one reason to congratulate her: she has been awarded for the Best Paper Writer and Paper Presenter Award for presenting her paper on the topic 'Forensic Accounting using IT' at the 2010 International Conference for CA Students organised by the Board of Studies jointly with the NIRC of ICAI.
